McMAHON ASSOCIATES, INC. HONORED WITH ENGINEERING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARD

Corporate Headquarters, Fort Washington, PA, June 19, 2007 - McMahon Associates, Inc., a full-service transportation engineering and planning firm with over 31 years of service, was honored with the prestigious Professional Development Award. Given by the Pennsylvania Professional Engineers in Private Practice (Pa/PEPP) and affiliated with the PA Society of Professional Engineers, McMahon was honored for their outstanding contributions to the advancement and improvement of the engineering profession through its employment policies and practices.

The purpose of the award is to recognize those firms with the best engineering employment practices and to encourage all firms to adopt progressive policies and practices. McMahon was evaluated on criteria including engineering personnel & licensure information, recruitment, employment, professional development, and other special employment practices.

McMahon received the award during an awards luncheon on Friday, June 1, 2007, at the Annual Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers Conference in Reading, PA. Jack Mitchell, P.E., associate and general manager of the Fort Washington office, received the award on behalf of McMahon Associates. He stated, "McMahon is very proud to accept this award for acknowledging our rich tradition of promoting and providing the tools to all employees for professional development!"
